

Health & Social Care

Rapidly Expanding Demand for Higher Skills

The sector has expanded significantly in recent years reflecting significant public expenditure on health and social care services

Workforce Transformation based on:

- New Roles
- New Competencies
- New Qualifications

LLN Objectives for Area:

- New & improved courses
- Increased employer engagement
- Flexible delivery of courses
- Increased access to HE
- Progression Agreements

LLN Funded Curriculum Development

- FD Health and Social Care
- FD Counselling
- FD Mental Health
- MA Art Therapy
- FD Cognitive Behavioural Therapy
- FD Social Care

Key Developments

- APEL
- Work-Based Learning
- Links with Sector Skills Councils
- Links with Learning and Skills Councils
- 14-19 Diploma

Liz Davies-Ward – Curriculum Lead Health and Social Care
01905 542071 / 0781 4264241 or e.davies-ward@worc.ac.uk